INTRODUCTION

Following is a list of retail travel agents, wholesale tour operators and allied firms abroad actively promoting travel to the USA. Those marked by an asterisk (*) also deal in special interest group travel such as tours to conventions and exhibitions, study tours, incentive travel, etc. It should also be noted that most firms listed as tour operators also act as retail travel agents.

This list, which was compiled by the United States Travel Service from existing sources to serve as a guide to the travel industry in the USA, does not represent a complete directory of all overseas travel agents and carriers. Omission of some names does not reflect adversely on organizations involved, nor does inclusion constitute endorsement by this Agency.

This listing is according to geographical areas; Europe (page 1), Latin America (page 35), and the Pacific (page 56). Under these three major headings one will find the addresses of the United States Travel Service regional offices that cover the various countries.
